Tricky Riddles

305 What do you call a witch that lives in the sand?

306 One might hang a locket from this.

307 Without me where would you be?

I am not your eyes, but I help you see.
What am I?

308 Makes apples fall from trees.

309 What is seen in the water and in the sky? It is part of the rainbow and can be in your eye.

310 The ninja turtles call this place home, as do mythical alligators.

311 A horrid monster hides from the day, with many legs and many eyes.

With silver chains it catches prey. And eats it all before it dies.
Yet in every cottage does it stay. And every castle beneath the sky.

312 What is this Mexican dish consisting of a tortilla rolled around a filling, typically of beans or ground or shredded beef?

313 I'm white, perfect for cutting and grinding. For most animals I am a useful tool. What am I?

314 This only turns over once you have travelled very far. What is it?

315 Humans have two that shrink in the light and expand in the dark.

316 I am the outstretched fingers that seize and hold the wind. Wisdom flows from me in other hands. Upon me are sweet dreams dreamt, my merest touch brings laughter.

Zebra Puzzle

The Zebra Puzzle is a logic puzzle said to be invented by Albert Einstein (but who knows), and Wikipedia says that only 2% of the world population is able to solve it

You're given 15 other facts:

1.There are five houses.
2.The Englishman lives in the red house.
3.The Spaniard owns the dog.
4.Coffee is drunk in the green house.
5.The Ukrainian drinks tea.
6.The green house is immediately to the right of the ivory house (to your right as you stand facing the row of five houses).
7.The Old Gold smoker owns snails.
8.Kools are smoked in the yellow house.
9.Milk is drunk in the middle house.
10.The Norwegian lives in the first house.
11.The man who smokes Chesterfields lives in the house next to the man with the fox.
12.Kools are smoked in a house next to the house where the horse is kept.
13.The Lucky Strike smoker drinks orange juice.
14.The Japanese smokes Parliaments.
15.The Norwegian lives next to the blue house.

To solve the puzzle, tell me:

1) Which man likes to drink water
2) Which man owns a zebra

305. Sandwich
306. necklace
307. light
308. gravity
309. blue
310. sewer
311. spider
312. burrito
313. teeth
314. odometer
315. Pupil
316. feather

Then I looked at the 15 facts to find anything I could fill into the grid with certainty.

There were facts 9 and 10, which stated flat out that milk is drunk in House 3 and the Norwegian lives in House 1. Fact 15 puts the blue house as House 2.

HOUSE ORDER	1	2	3	4	5
COLOR		BLUE
NATIONALITY	NORWEGIAN
PET
CIGARETTES

Those were like the numbers they give you to start a Sudoku puzzle. Using that info plus fact 6 (the green house is immediately to the right of the ivory house) I knew that the ivory-green houses had to either be Houses 3-4 or 4-5, leaving only red and yellow as possible colors for House 1. Fact 2 told me that the red house was where the Englishman lived, so that left only yellow for House 1. That then led me to fact 8 (Kools are smoked in the yellow house) and fact 12 (Kools are smoked next to the house with the horse), allowing me to fill in six items for sure:

COLOR	YELLOW	BLUE
PET		HORSE
DRINK			MILK
CIGARETTES	KOOLS

From there, I started creating "color blocks." When a fact would tell me that two items on the grid were linked together, I'd put them in somewhere they could fit and make them the same color. I could then treat each color group like a single puzzle piece.

HOUSE ORDER	1	2	3	4	5
COLOR	YELLOW	BLUE	IVORY	GREEN	RED
NATIONALITY	NORWEGIAN	UKRANIAN			ENGLISHMAN
PET		HORSE			SNAILS
DRINK		TEA	MILK	COFFEE
CIGARETTES	KOOLS				OLD GOLD

Once all the puzzle pieces were created, it was just a matter of shifting them around horizontally until they all fit.

HOUSE ORDER	1	2	3	4	5
COLOR	YELLOW	BLUE	RED	IVORY	GREEN
NATIONALITY	NORWEGIAN	UKRANIAN	ENGLISHMAN	SPANIARD	JAPANESE
PET	FOX	HORSE	SNAILS	DOG	ZEBRA
DRINK	WATER	TEA	MILK	OJ	COFFEE
CIGARETTES	KOOLS	CHESTERFIELDS	OLD GOLD	LUCKY STRIKE	PARLIAMANETS

That left two empty white squares, revealing the answers:

1) The Norwegian drinks water

2) The Japanese guy has a pet zebra
