REPORT ON SCHOOL ANNUAL FUNCTION : 26th AND 27th APRIL 2023

(Performance by students of grade VIII, IX and X)

Introduction

The beginning of the academic year was an amalgamation of our rich Indian Culture, art forms and live music. It was a two-day event performed by the students of grade VIII, IX and X. The theme of annual day program was “EUPHORIA”.

Overview of the event

The function was held at the school premises and started at 06:00 pm with the lighting of the lamp ceremony by the chief guest, Mrs Anita Sharma, Principal of Army Public School, Southern Command on 26th April 2023 and Mr. Vinod Garad, District Institution of Education and Training, Pune on 27th April 2023. The event was attended by parents, teachers and students from respective section of grade VIII, IX and X. The students presented a range of cultural activities including classical and contemporary dance, music, and drama performances.

Beginning of event and academic presentation

The annual function began with an energetic welcome song, which was performed by the melodious students from the music club of the school. Lord Ganesha Vandana brings good fortune in both the personal and professional life. The beautiful evening then proceeded with the divine blessings of Lord Ganesha, which was sung and performed by the bright students of the school.

Subsequently, the school Principal welcomed the chief guest and proud parents and presented the annual report of the school, which not only includes the vision and mission of premium institution but also the achievements of the school for the academic year 2022-2023. After the presentation of annual report by the Principal, the Chief Guest of the ceremony addressed the gathering on both the days and emphasized on the importance of hard work, perseverance, and embracing diversity in life

Students' performances

On both the days, the students put up a spectacular show with their performances, showcasing the diverse cultures and talents present in the school. All the performances were presented with great enthusiasm and energy, which received a thunderous applause from the audience. The highlights of the show were two group performances by the senior students, wherein they performed a dance on fusion song “WE WILL ROCK YOU” and another mild blowing “JUGALBANDI ORCHESTRA”, wherein the young musicians of the school created an musical atmosphere by playing beats using drums, buckets, empty boxes including other musical instruments. Both the performances got a standing ovation and much praise from the audience. The function saw the participation of traditional dance of respective cultures being followed in India. All the performances made by the students of grade VIII, IX and X on both the days made everyone “shake their legs”. The parents kept cheering for their children, who were performing on the stage. After three hours of grand performances by the students, the program ended with the anchors proposing the vote of thanks and extending her warm regards to everyone present at the Annual Day function.

Feedback and conclusion

The annual function of PAWAR PUBLIC SCHOOL, NANDED CITY, PUNE was a grand success and the students and teachers including non-teaching staff worked tirelessly to make it happen. The function was a great opportunity to showcase the diverse cultural heritage of the school community and promote harmony and acceptance. The feedback received from the audience was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing their appreciation for the performances and the efforts put in by the faculty and students. The annual function, in real sense, is an indicative of importance of cultural diversity and the role of education in promoting inclusivity.
